As a Candidate what you would like the membership to know about you:

As a candidate, I'd like the membership to know that my commitment to financial aid and student support is both professional and deeply personal. Having spent over a decade in various leadership roles within ILASFAA and other organizations, I am passionate about enhancing access, equity, and efficiency in financial aid processes. My experience has taught me the importance of collaboration, empathy, and adaptability, qualities I bring to every interaction.

I am driven by the belief that financial aid professionals play a crucial role in shaping students' futures, and I am committed to advancing our field through advocacy, innovation, and continuous learning. My active engagement with Rotary and United Way shows my dedication to service, not only within our profession but also in our broader communities.

If given the opportunity, I am excited to work alongside all of you to support our shared goals and make a meaningful impact on the students and families we serve.
